Mandel also requested any Colombian Communist Press statements concerning the Pan American Conference in Colombia in 1948. FDD is checking on this for us.

7. Mrs. Gail of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee called in connection with a list of Hungarian organizations which we had provided her previously. She referred to the Amerika Magyar Szó on page 2 of the materials. She said the comment on this organization indicated that the International Workers Order was dissolved. She was interested in knowing whether this organization still has a Hungarian section.
